

About DIME

The DIME Program provides comprehensive wealth literacy and investment education to high school students. The acronym, DIME, conveys the program's values through Diversity, Investment Management, and Engagement. Our mission is to build a new generation of young investors who understand the power of strategic investing and wealth-building.

Internship:

Interns will assist DIME with its social media efforts and the IMPACT e-newsletter by researching, developing, and publishing culturally relevant business content. They will also help manage all social media accounts related to DIME and support the transition of the IMPACT e-newsletter from a bi-monthly to a weekly publication.

The paid internship is virtual and will extend from June 16th – August 8th

Qualifications:

- Genuine interest in business, investing and financial news
- Enrollment in a Bachelor's program at a four-year university
- GPA (2.9 +)
- Strong written communication skills
- Research prowess
- Ability to work alone and in groups
- Intellectual curiosity

To apply:

Please submit your resume, a one-minute video explaining why you would be a great intern, and a compelling one-paragraph writing sample on one of the topics listed below. Write something worthy of our IMPACT e-newsletter.

Topics for Consideration

Teens and Crypto

Dying College Degrees

Sports Gambling

Teens are turning to trades instead of college

Roommates: Stories from the Crypt

The stock I wish I owned

Send your information to team@dime-program.org. Deadline is March 1st.